Solving Ethical Dilemmas: A Leader's Guide to Decisive Moments

Simply put, Ethics and Critical Thinking are moving to the “front burner” for 2020. Future-ready leaders need to update their understanding of the role ethics plays in our lives, and the positive impact that integrity will have on the workplace in the future. In this fast-paced workshop, Karl Ahlrichs offers multiple viewpoints on the moral and ethical challenges facing advanced leadership and shares the skills needed to maintain a competitive advantage. In this facilitated discussion, we will begin with fresh data on the metrics that really matter, which will lead us to solutions for the ethical challenges on the horizon.

Karl J. Ahlrichs, SHRM-SCP, SPHR, CSP

Karl Ahlrichs is a national speaker, author and consultant, presenting on ethics and people issues in all industries, and is often quoted in the local and national media. Karl has decades of strategic consulting to all industries, using risk management and sound organizational development theories to bypass “best practices” and move directly to “next practices”. Karl is Senior Consultant for the risk management firm Gregory & Appel and is a top-rated CPE presenter for the AICPA and BLI. He is a regular contributor to The Journal of Accountancy, and for more than 20 years he has facilitated an invitation-only CFO Roundtable.
